Volunteer On FIRE Presenter Job Description

Commitment: Part-time hours vary

Reports to: On FIRE Program Director/ Executive Director

Summary: The On FIRE (First In Relationship Education) Program provides tailored group presentations for classrooms, parent groups, teen groups and community organizations. The goal of the program is to elevate the discussion of reproductive health beyond anatomy and place human sexuality within the construct of the whole human being.

We are more than physical beings, we are also emotional, social, and intellectual. Understanding relationship skills helps students understand dating and sexual health within that whole person definition. This gives them information to choose relationships based on goals and understanding rather than simple attraction and peer pressure.

On FIRE presenters deliver the content from a Power Point Based Curriculum that encourages student participation by discussion, illustrations, and interactive activities under the supervision of the On FIRE Program Director.

General Responsibilities:

- Commits to study training materials which provides curriculum content, foundational research and theory, classroom activities and presentation style prior to presenting in the classroom.
- Works as a team with another speaker in each classroom for maximum effectiveness.
- Flexibility with availability during school hours, 7 am to 3 pm.
- Arrive on time prepared for presentation at host sites.

Knowledge and Skills:

- Solid commitment to Pregnancy Help Clinic's Mission, Statement of Belief and Values.
- Successful completion of the Volunteer Orientation and On FIRE Training.
- Ability to answer questions with knowledge and understanding of PHC programs and policies.
- Strong belief in the power of relationship education as a means of reducing and eliminating risky sexual behavior through Sexual Risk Avoidance (SRA) Education.
- Background in human services, teaching, or ministry is beneficial.
- Sincere enjoyment of adolescents.
- Ability to speak comfortably in front of groups.
- Willingness to practice and master the classroom activities, including the Socratic style interactive format.
- Willingness to attend in-services and additional trainings as needed.
- Comfortable with the use of current technology including Google Suite and Microsoft Suite.

Physical Demands and Work Environment

- While performing this job, the volunteer is regularly required to stand and talk for long periods of time.
- Job also requires driving to various locations in Livingston County and the surrounding area.
- Be responsible to transport presentation materials to presentations.

Additional Information

- Speakers can determine the locations, dates, and times they want to present. Scheduling will be organized through the On FIRE Program Director.
- Trained speakers will work unsupervised in the classroom.
- Volunteers may be compensated with a stipend for travel and meal expenses. Individuals who choose to receive stipends totaling greater than $500 per year will be considered a 1099 worker and will be required to complete a W-9.
